

Concerts in The Grove 2008

Sponsored by The City of Clayton and the Clayton Business & Community Association
 All Concerts held on Saturdays from 6:00p.m.-8:30 p.m.
 Gazebo at "The Grove" Public Park, Downtown Clayton

June 14	The Sun Kings For years the Bay Area's own Sun Kings have been thrilling packed houses and outdoor festivals around Northern California with their musical tribute to The Beatles. Their attention to detail is uncanny, and their energy reminiscent of the joy and excitement felt at a real Beatles concert. DON'T expect to see John, Paul, George, or Ringo look-alikes. DO expect to hear your favorite Beatles' songs performed brilliantly, as you've come to know and love them. And of course, expect to have a FAB-ulous time! Contact them at Drewharrison@sun-kings.com
June 21	Fred McCarty & Company New Country at its best with a blend of standard Country, Swing, a little bit of Rock, Blues and R & B, that will appeal to the newer generation of Country fans as well as the older traditionalist. Contact them at billremington@gmail.com
June 28	Juke Box Heroes This Classic Pop Rock band does it all, and very well. Sit back and enjoy the music we love to hear, and sing along with tunes from the 60s to today. This band has appeared with The Beach Boys, Michael McDonald, Gregg Allman Band, Everly Brothers and many more. Check them out at www.Jukeboxheroes.com
July 12	Silver Spur Country Western at its finest. Tess will belt out those country western favorites, backed by her seasoned "Posse". You can also catch their act at the Back Forty Texas Barbecue in Pleasant Hill. Contact them at mistess@pacbell.net
July 19	Mixed Nuts Oldies but Goodies from the 50s to today's great sounds. A regular band at the Pleasanton Hotel. They can be reached at www.mixednutsband.com
July 26	Frankie G & The Conviction Blues & Rock N' Roll. High-energy blues band delivers a powerful show with an eclectic style of the blues while presenting a strong cache of classic and contemporary music. They can be reached at Frank@deltabluesfestival.net
August 9	The PHD's This group has played Clayton's Art & Wine Festival from the very first year, bringing Clayton the great sounds of Santana and the like with their 7 piece band and awesome vocals. They can be reached at bobcastellblanch@gmail.com
August 16	Vintage Local musicians singing Rock and Roll songs from the 40s, 50s, 60s and 70s with smooth harmonies and instrumentals. They can be reached at joycenovicky@comcast.net
August 23	In Disguise It's Time to Party! Lead Vocalist Jack Pollard and musical director/drummer Brett "King" Cosby head this line up of world class musicians with their vast repertoire covers songs from the classical jazz of the 40s through the R & B and pop hits of the 80s. They can be contacted at Kingcosby@sbcglobal.net
Sept. 6	Dave Hosely aka Diamond Dave This one man show, a regular at Petar's in Lafayette, will pack them in. Get there early, and he will get you up off your seats with tunes from Neil Diamond to Frank Sinatra and many more of our great crooners. Available for weddings and private parties. He can be reached at Dave@davehosley.com
Sept. 13	Jambalaya Swing Band This 12 piece Dance Band is led by Clayton resident Ken Brock. The band will keep your feet dancin' and your toes tappin' as they recreate the sounds of the Big Band Era. It's the "House Band" on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays at the Pleasanton Hotel. They can be reached at kbrokley@comcast.net
Sept. 20	East Bay Mudd Band Put on your dancing shoes. This dynamic ten-piece band has been thrilling clients and their guests all over the Bay Area for decades with their upbeat and powerful take on Motown, R & B, Swing and contemporary classics. They can be reached at Hurwitz.michael@mac.com
